Christian A. Mason Received Recognition for Exceptional Commitment as a Leader, Innovator, and Motivator in Assisted Living
CEO of Vigilant and President of Sun Management Services Honored by the ACHCA

PORTLAND, Ore., April 25, 2007 —Vigilant today announced that CEO Christian A. Mason, who also serves as President of Sun Management Services, has been honored by the American College of Health Care Administrators for demonstrating exceptional commitment as a leader, innovator, and motivator in Assisted Living.

Mason has dedicated more than 20 years to improving the operations and quality of care at Assisted Living facilities and many other Long Term Care Facilities including Sun Retirement Corporation. He is the founding member of the Oregon Assisted Living Facilities Association and has served on the faculty of the first national training program for Assisted Living. He also developed the first national licensing exam, and served as editor of the first national preparatory course for Assisted Living.

“Many Assisted Living communities and personnel have looked to Chris for assistance and credit him with impacting their business, residents and family,” said Doug Fullaway, president and COO of Vigilant. “Chris is a role model for all of us in ensuring what we do on a daily basis is impacting a broader base of people to improve their quality of life.”

About Vigilant

Vigilant is a leading operational management systems company for assisted living providers who need an easier way to profitably manage their business. Unlike other systems providers, Vigilant offers an adaptive system that can accommodate individual facility requirements. Core to the company’s operational excellence suite of products is The Administrator that, on average, increases revenue by $150 per resident per month.
