Vigilan Ranked Top 10 Fastest Growing Company
Company recognized by Portland Business Journal

PORTLAND, Ore., June 27, 2007 —Vigilan today announced it was recognized by the Portland Business Journal as one of the fastest growing private companies in Oregon for its exponential growth from 2004 through 2006, increasing revenue more than 243%. The company, which provides operational management systems for the assisted living industry also more than doubled its customer base and subscription revenues over the same time period, expanding from 14 to 43 states.

“The Independent Living, Assisted Living and Dementia Care markets are increasingly accepting the need for systems to manage the quality of care, compliance with regulations and profitability,” said Doug Fullaway, president and COO of Vigilant. “Community owners and operators are realizing the direct bottom line benefits of adopting our operational software suite.”

Hundreds of communities have turned to Vigilant to help them achieve operational excellence in response to continuing change in state regulations, ever increasing demands for a variety of services from residents and rising competition. Vigilant is the operational management system behind the assisted living services for more than 20,000 residents in the U.S. and Canada.

About Vigilant

Vigilan is the leading operational management systems company for independent living, assisted living and dementia care providers who need an easier way to profitably manage their business. Unlike other systems providers, Vigilant offers an adaptive system that can accommodate varying state regulations and individual facility requirements. Core to the company’s operational excellence suite of products is The Administrator that, on average, increases revenue by $150 per resident per month.
